You promise that the information stated in this TotalLoan Consumer Loan Application is true and correct to the best of your knowledge. The Credit Union or its agent is authorized to investigate your credit worthiness, employment history, and to obtain a credit report and to answer questions about its credit history with you. The Credit Union may also obtain credit reports to update, increase, extend or renew credit with you. False or misleading statements in your application may cause any loan to be in default. You agree that this application shall be the Credit Union's property whether or not this application is approved. You will notify the Credit Union in writing immediately of any changes in your name, address or employment. You understand that it is a crime to willfully and deliberately provide incomplete or incorrect information to obtain credit. If you request, you will be provided the name and address of any credit bureau from which we received a credit report. As security for any loan to you or on your behalf, you grant the Credit Union a Security Interest in all individual and joint share or other accounts you have with the Credit Union now and in the future. When you are in default you authorize the Credit Union to take that money and apply it to what you owe. Shares and deposits that would have an adverse tax consequence if pledged as security are not subject to this Security Interest. To help the government fight the funding of Terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license and other identifying information.
